New Yorkers Hitting Six Figure Jackpots Galore at Westchester Casino

Manuel Esteche of Port Chester Hits $571,049 Jackpot Friday Night, Richest In Empire City Casino History

Yonkers, New York - A Port Chester man hit the largest jackpot in the eight-year history of Empire City Casino on Friday night (February 27). Manuel Esteche took home the $571,049.05 prize with a mere $2.50 spin on the Bally Blazing 7 slot machine (1-cent denomination) at 11:30 PM.

But the biggest jackpot in history approaching the million dollar mark – an $868,000 life-changer – is still up for grabs.

In November, Moosue Stefern of Bergenfield, New Jersey hit a record -breaking $509,121.96 at Empire City, which was more than double the previous jackpot record. At the time, it was the biggest jackpot since the Yonkers “racino” first opened in 2006, but now moves into second place.

The slots have been hot at Empire City. Just three nights before Esteche’s record-breaker, “Ella” from Brooklyn hit the third largest jackpot in Empire City annals with a $222,459.74 pot on February 24.
