The King of Pop is Startin' Somethin' at Empire City Casino

Fans Delight in the Musical Immersion Experience of New High-Tech Michael Jackson Slots

Yonkers, August 27, 2014 – The King of Pop is back for an encore at Empire City Casino. Bally Technologies Inc. has unveiled a follow-up to its Michael Jackson King of Pop slot machine. The exciting, interactive new game called Wanna Be Startin' Somethin' hit the casino floor this week.

The highly anticipated Michael Jackson Wanna Be Startin' Somethin' video slot will electrify players with more gaming excitement from one of the greatest performers of all time. This encore to the popular Michael Jackson King of Pop game features familiar gameplay and all-new bonuses set to five of Michael Jackson's most iconic hits: Bad, Billie Jean, Don't Stop 'Til You Get Enough, The Way You Make Me Feel, and Wanna Be Startin' Somethin'.

The game is highlighted by a U-Spin Platinum Record Bonus Spin that prompts players to touch the game screen to spin a platinum record with their fingers for bonus credits or to activate one of three special free games bonuses. Hit the right bonus and you'll be treated to a personal concert by a digitized King. During free games attached to the songs Billie Jean and Bad, Jackson's music video pops up on the screen.

The high-energy game also offers some features from the original Michael Jackson slot, including a surround-sound chair. Empire City guests will find the new video slots on the first floor of the casino.
