Connecticut Residents Win Big with New Bus Service to Empire City Casino

Nov. 1, 2012 - Connecticut residents have really come to enjoy the close proximity of Empire City Casino at Yonkers Raceway. The young and young-at-heart head south to get their fill of entertainment. Connecticut gamers try their luck at one of the 5,300 slot machines or the electronic roulette, craps, baccarat and sic bo table games. Horse racing fans make their picks year-round at the most successful harness racing track in the state. Those looking to shake loose after a hard day's work come to enjoy a great meal and some live entertainment, taking in everything from karaoke, comedy, party bands and dancing the night away. With all this happening under one roof, it's hard to stay away from Empire City Casino.

Traveling to Empire City Casino to get the entertainment you want when you want it just got easier. A new bus service runs directly to Empire City Casino Monday through Saturday with stops in Bridgeport, Fairfield, Westport, Norwalk, and Stamford courtesy of Loyalty Transportation Services. The full schedule is listed below or can be found at www.empirecitycasino.com/publictransportation.

The $30 round-trip pricing per person includes a $10 food voucher and $10 in free play for the slot machines. The direct bus service provides a convenient, timely and cost-effective means of getting Connecticut residents to and from their favorite destination. Exact fare is requested.
