Latin Night at Empire City Casino

Yonkers, New York - From Yonkers to Kingston, from the Verrazano to the Tappan Zee bridges, Latin music lovers have been flocking to Empire City Casino for Latin Night which has become an unrivaled cultural hotspot in the tristate area. One Saturday a month there's a Latin takeover of The Red Room at Empire City casino from 9:00pm – 2:00am.

The night will be alive with the hottest Latin beats played by DJ JRS. International Latin DJ JRS is one of the top Latin deejays in the tristate area. With more than a decade playing all over the US, Canada, Caribbean & Europe, his knowledge of music expands from Latin, Reggae and EDM Music, giving him a cutting edge in the Latin Urban scene.

Empire City's Latin Night brings together people of all ages and backgrounds to drink, dance and be seen. Sit and watch the talent on the dance floor, or join in yourself when you get brave enough. There is no cover charge for Empire Club members, and only $10 for non-members.

The iconic glass staircase leads the way to The Red Room, providing another-worldly arrival experience. Inspired by a 1950's diner, the 10,000 square foot high-end space, with its red and chrome accents, easily transforms into a Latin music lover's paradise. A full bar will quench the thirst, and a cocktail menu will provide sustenance to keep you on the dance floor.

Since its inception a few months ago, Empire City's Latin Night has gained tremendous popularity drawing crowds of up to 400 guests. Not your average Latin club, the fun doesn't stop when the music ends at 2:00 a.m. Attendees can Cha Cha their way through the casino and Salsa to the slots. With a casino floor larger than most in Vegas or Atlantic City, there are plenty of opportunities to try your luck until the casino closes at 6:00 a.m.

All that dancing built up a bigger appetite? In addition to the light food menu offered in The Red Room, guests can Rumba to the casino's restaurants, including Dan Rooney's Sports Pub and Nonno's Italian Trattoria, or grab something at the nine station International Food Court or some Tex-Mex at Lil' Cocina. And while you're there, stop at the bar near Lil' Cocina to check out the largest selection of tequilas and mezcals in the Northeast with shots ranging from $5 to $150.
