EMPIRE CITY CASINO LAUNCHES LATE-NIGHT WOODLAWN SHUTTLE SERVICE FOR PLAYERS AND EMPLOYEES

Late-night shuttles now available at 4 train's Woodlawn subway stop.

Yonkers, New York—Empire City Casino has launched its “Late Night Woodlawn 4 Train Shuttle Service” to serve players and employees who require public transportation during the off-peak hours of 1:00am and 6:30am.

The $1 per-ride shuttle will pick-up and drop-off at the intersection of Jerome & Bainbridge Avenues at 3700 Jerome Avenue, just steps from the train station in front of the 24-hour Gary & Gino’s Pizzeria. The convenient location offers round-the-clock food and drink for hungry travelers.

“With over 8 million annual visitors and 1300 employees, many of whom rely on the 4 train to reach Empire City, it became clear this was a service our customers and employees wanted,” said Taryn Duffy, Empire City’s director of public affairs. “This shuttle will serve our late-night customers as well as team members who work late shifts.”

The daily service will be provided by Boston Deluxe. Riders can reach them at 914-308-2878 with any immediate service questions related to scheduling, weather, traffic delays, etc.

The full shuttle schedule is available at www.empirecitycasino.com/getting-here/line-run and in print at any promotion booth at Empire City Casino.
